CDSA

The Canadian Deaf Sports Association (CDSA) is a non-profit organization dedicated to the development of high-performance deaf and hard-of-hearing athletes. Through direct financial support, the CDSA helps athletes participate in international sports events sanctioned by the International Committee of Sports for the Deaf and the Pan-American Sports Committee for the Deaf.

- Success
- Transparency
- Ethics
- Communication

THE WINTER DEAFLYMPICS

The 19th edition of the Winter Deaflympics will be held from December 12th to 21st, 2019 in Italy, in the regions of Valtellina and Valchiavenna.

The Summer and Winter Deaflympic Games are designed to bring together elite athletes from around the world who are either deaf or hard-of-hearing to compete in various sports events while fostering friendship among nations.

Canada has taken part in the Games since 1959. Once again, this year, the CDSA will send a delegation of high-level athletes to represent the country at this international competition.

THE CANADIAN DELEGATION

The Winter Deaflympic Games will gather more than 25 national delegations, totalling between 500 and 600 athletes, taking part in 6 sports events.

The Canadian delegation, funded by the CDSA, will consist of 35 elite athletes, either deaf or hard-of-hearing, competing in the four events listed below:

- Curling
- Ice hockey
- Alpine ski
- Snowboard

TAKING PART IN THE DEAFLYMPICS

The 18th edition of the Winter Deaflympics in Khanty-Mansiysk in Russia in 2015 set a record for participation with 27 national delegations and 336 elite athletes present at the event. Its increasing participation rate makes the Winter Deaflympics a not-to-be-missed event in deaf and hard-of-hearing sports.

Fans may follow their teams thanks to a live stream on the Deaflympics web site. In addition, the CDSA will post news and information about the Canadian delegation in real time on its Facebook page.

SPONSORSHIP PLAN OBJECTIVES

The objective of the current financing plan is to raise $25,000. This sum will be used to cover expenses associated the Canadian delegation's participation in the Games.

The CDSA's needs toward funding the Canadian delegation's participation in the Deaflympics are shown below.

Air travel to Italy	$1,600
Accommodations + meals (14 nights)	$2,400
Uniforms	$550
Registration	$200
TOTAL COST PER ATHLETE	$4,750

The CDSA will cover between 40% and 50% of the travel cost. The fundraiser is designed to cover part of the athletes' remaining costs.

Fundraising objective	$25,000
Expected number of athletes	35
AVERAGE FUNDING PER ATHLETE	$714

By attaining the financing plan's objective of raising $25,000,
17.5% of athletes' participation costs can be covered.

To date, the CDSA has already raised $9,000 as part of this financing plan:

Fundraising objective	$25,000
Donation by Jim Kyte, former NHL deaf player	$2,500
2018 Canada Deaf Games	$2,500
Private donors	$4,000
SPONSOR PLAN GOAL	$16,000

Consequently, the objective of this sponsorship plan is to receive funding totalling $16,000 to provide partial funding to cover athletes' participation costs for the 2019 Winter Deaflympics.

Sponsoring the CDSA has a direct positive impact on athletes. Thanks to the funding they receive, Canadian athletes can focus on their training in better conditions so as to perform well at the Games and aim for Gold. In addition, the Games provide the athletes with a national and international showcase, bringing visibility and recognition for their participation and achievements at the Deaflympics.
